Cervical Cancer

4th most common cancer globally

Symptoms

- Bleeding between abnormal or heavier & longer periods
- Watery vaginal discharge
- Post-menopausal vaginal bleeding
- Pelvic pain or pain during intercourse.

Who is at Risk

- Women with HIV
- Early sexual activity or multiple partners
- Long-term birth control use
- Having 3+ full-term pregnancies
- Weakened immune

Preventive Measures

- Get HPV vaccine
- Limit sexual partners
- Regular check-ups & Pap Smear

Screen, Vaccinate And Stay Protected Against Cervical Cancer!

